I2. Windridge-Burnett That the following resolution be sent to Mr S Charters M.P. for his consideration and attention

WHEREAS by the passing of Bill #265 by the House of Commons on May 20th 1930 it was intended that all pension applicants should have a fair hearing and that the decisions of the Pension Tribunals (which were created for the purpose of hearing these cases) should be superior to those of the Pension Board and,

WHEREAS it has since developed during the operation of the Act that the Pension Board has used its right of appeal against the decisions of the Pensions Tribunal, in all cases where that decision has been favourable to the applicant, thus causing much unnecessary and unwarranted distress and defeating the true meaning of the Act,

Therefore be it Resolved

That this Branch of the Canadian Legion of the B.E.S.L. do petition you to do your best to see that this injustice is rectified when this clause comes before the House for debate.
